

AXIS: The Song in the Center of the Soul

AXIS, THE SONG IN THE CENTER OF THE SOUL by award-winning poet and author, Heather K. O'Hara, is a life-changing volume of original, inspirational poetry and quotes. It is the story of one woman's journey into the infinite beauty of her own soul; a journey that is inevitable when we choose to take responsibility for ourselves and the circumstances of our lives. Now available as a Kindle Book, this new 2nd Edition includes a revised Introduction by the author, which gives the reader enormous insight into the consciousness of wholeness a consciousness that Heather O'Hara has been living and writing about for years. Questioning many deeply rooted beliefs about herself, in a time when her life was filled with unexpected change and challenges, her own journey of personal growth and transformation led to the writing of this theosophical book a book that has changed the perception of readers from all walks of life with its loving messages, words of wisdom and inspirational poems. Allowing her inner-voice to guide her; choosing to take responsibility for her own story; choosing to find meaning in every experience choosing to be a creator and not a victim were conscious choices that brought her extraordinary peace and a profound sense of freedom as she recreated her life. We are much more powerful than we realize, she tells us. Every one of us can take a crisis that makes us feel as though we are less and turn it into a process that inspires us to become more. That process can be painful or that process can be fascinating it's up to you; it's all up to you. Having and maintaining a consciousness of wholeness, living with clarity and experiencing inner-peace is a choice; and a conscious choice is a powerful choice. Choosing to change is choosing to grow. Transformation happens when we embrace change, when we trust the process of change. And, when we finally choose to listen to our own inner-voice, which is constantly telling us that the right time to become more is NOW, great truths begin to emerge. Open your mind and open your heart as you open this book. Allow AXIS to lead you back to the center of your soul. Make a conscious choice. Let your own beautiful truth emerge. No matter who you are, no matter where you are, the right time is always NOW.
