-INTRODUCTION-How many sad stories to tell, needless tears, heartaches, broken marriages, ruined businesses and lives because people neither understand nor indeed have tamed the beast in relationships... Attitude.... Why attitude...?Attitude is both conduct and disposition, whether in speech or silence, action or inaction. On the low end it comes as timidity, cowardice, ineptitude, shabbiness, laziness and so on. On the high side it comes as pride, arrogance, unruly speech, commandeering disposition, contempt for authority, bigotry and so many other aspects of demeanor. Generally speaking, if you project and see that your relationship with a female is going to last more than a week, brace yourself up for some attitude whether it lasts seconds, hours or days. One way or another you are more than likely to get a glimpse of it. The failure to recognize and deal with a female's attitude intelligently is the silent culprit behind many dead relationships between people that would have otherwise been fruitful. It is important for you to realize that at the moment of attitude many women are oblivious of their disposition and may not think ill of their conduct. Only after the damage is done do they come to a sober realization of what had transpired. Dear reader, today's females and attitude go hand in hand... master it.....
