

Comprehensive Questioning: Pinpoint Leadership Skill Development Training Series

Comprehensive Questioning presents strategies and techniques to improve performance using comprehensive questioning methods. It helps business leaders develop the skills they require to improve their problem solving, decision making and critical thinking, resulting in improved performance and increased productivity. Its unique advantage is to educate leaders how to probe and question to develop the information they need to analyze and evaluate through improved critical thinking to improve their results, using specific questioning tactics, strategies and techniques. This enhances their ability to use the appropriate ones to clarify answers and feedback to make better decisions
