

Frozen Light: The Eternal Beauty of Crystals

For more than twenty years, Lawrence Stoller has been creating art that is, quite literally, like nothing else on earth. Working in the medium of rock crystals and gemstones - from those that fit in the palm of ones hand to massive installations weighing a ton or more - he is at the forefront of pioneering an astonishing new medium. This book collects a stunning spectrum of Stollers work, as well as fascinating stories about the pieces origins, including history and science of mineralogy, and mind-bending musings on the metaphysical and healing properties of these mystical stones. FEATURES: Nearly 200 images of Stollers incredible works, in high quality four-color reproduction. Prose, poetry, and behind-the-scenes stories of how these works were created, making this more than just a glorious art book
