

Independent London Store Guide. Moritz Steiger, Effie Fotaki

A complete update! 2012 edition. Following the success of No2 book, Moritz and Effie want to build on its success by releasing an improved update of their popular review of Londons best independent shops - particularly in these quickly changing difficult times. Using the same photography rich format with a gatefold cover, clear maps, showing the best pubs, cafes and places to eat while out shopping. Independent shops are often the only outlet for small artisan creators and are a key indicator of local social diversity and the front line against global mono culture. While showing our readers often missed parts of London, we hope to support independent shops by raising their profile and help them
