

Light of the Andes

Dr. J. E. Williams gives us an unforgettable story of the sacred way of the Qero, an indigenous people of the Peruvian Andes. In the highest mountains and heartland of the Qero, and at immense personal risk, he is taught a beautiful, inexorable value system that goes back to a time before the Incas. The mystical landscape of the high mountain wilderness fosters personal transformation. As he ascends to the roof of the world, Williams weaves the true secret of the Andes into the archetypal personal spiritual pilgrimage, an authentic journey of the heart, and brings back the message for our times.
