

Tefilin: A Chassidic Discourse by Rabbi Nathan of Breslov

In Chassidic thought, the outer practices of Judaism are the body while the inner meaning and significance of those mitzvot are the soul. In this translation of Likutey Halakhot, Tefilin 5, Reb Noson probes the soul of the mitzvah of tefilin from every angle the Torah portions, parchments, capsules, straps, knots, Rashi and Rabbeinu Tam tefilin, and more connecting it to the very essence of Jewish wisdom and belief.
