

Under the African Sun

Tendele. The most magical place on earth. Here, lush green fields stretch into the distance, merging with misty valleys. Cows moo in harmony with bird chirps and a murmuring stream. You might hear the beating of drums and the song of the Zulu people. This is the beloved home of eleven-year-old Simon Mabahne. But school and other duties tear Simon away from this blissful world and pull him into the harshness of the city. For a poor Zulu boy challenges lie waiting everywhere. Simon, however, is driven by a passion. soccer. And a dream. To command the respect of everyone by becoming the worlds greatest soccer player. It is this feverish desire that feeds him with strength as he tackles each problem that comes in the way of his goals.
