

Ethical Considerations in the Business Aspects of Health Care (Seminar in Business Ethics)

The Woodstock Theological Center is a non-profit research institute by the society of Jesus to address topics of social and political importance from a theological and ethical perspective. Interdisciplinary and ecumenical by design, the Center engages in research, conducts conferences and seminars, publishes books and articles. Human rights, economic justice, the church as a social institution, and business ethics are some of the public policy issues that Woodstock examines.
